Exploring India's Culinary Diversity with Meals on Wheels

India is a land where food changes every few hundred kilometers. Every Indian state tells its story through food.—each region offering something unique and mouth-watering. As your train moves from Punjab to Tamil Nadu, your plate can change from buttery parathas to tangy sambar. Thanks to RailRestro, now you don't need to wait and reach your destination to try local food—it comes to you, hot and fresh, right at your seat. So, if it's a craving for spicy biryani from Hyderabad or simple khichdi in Odisha, the flavours of India are now just a tap away.

Meals on Wheels helps you discover these gems while you journey—without worrying about tiffin boxes or train pantry food. With RailRestro's wide restaurant network, you can enjoy food on train that's not just filling but deeply cultural—like a mini food tour of India, all while sitting by the window. Let's Explore India's Culinary Diversity with Meals on Wheels
